BASEBALL DAY AT FPC

Featuring Toronto Blue Jays 2nd baseman, Aaron Hill

Saturday, December 1, at First Presbyterian Church
9:30 am to 3:30 pm

Players age 7-12 years old
$60 per player (lunch included)

Players will have large and small group instruction on all parts of the game of baseball. There will be:

- Offensive stations
- Vision training stations
- Throwing stations
- Observation stations
- Discussion stations
- Full fast paced wiffle ball game

100% of the proceeds of this camp will be donated to the medical funds of John Griffing and Natalie Biagi and FPC.

It is the target of Splinters Baseball Academy to help these two great families as well as FPC. 100% of the funds from this camp will go toward equal contributions to these groups. Please continue to help us make a difference in our community.
